

NSW Rally Vehicle Registration Scheme

Notice of Cancellation

As a condition of the RVS, Motorsport Australia must advise the RMS when a vehicle has its RVS conditional registration cancelled. Cancellation of RVS registration may occur in the following circumstances:

- As part of the process of the sale of the vehicle. RVS registration cannot be transferred to a new owner. The original owner must cancel the registration (using this form) and the new owner must apply for a new RVS registration
- Should registration not be renewed within the timeframe required by the RMS, the RVS registration must be cancelled. A new RVS registration may be applied for at the discretion of the Applicant
- Should the vehicle not be able to meet the requirements of the inspection for the RVS, or be unable to continue to meet those requirements

Please forward this completed form to Motorsport Australia via email logbooks@motorsport.org.au or post PO Box 172 Canterbury LPO, VIC 3126
